

Andrew Lewis to George Washington, October 31, 1758,
Letters to Washington and Accompanying Papers.
Published by the Society of the Colonial Dames of America. Edited by Stanislaus Murray Hamilton.

FROM COLONEL ANDREW LEWIS.

MONTREALL October ye 31st. 1758

DR. SIR

I have the hapiness of Aquanting you that I am in perfect helth — and tho I had the Misfortun of being made prisoner the 14 Last month, ame as hapy and much more So, than should have Expected under Such Sircomstances. Nothing this Country Can afford but I have in plenty — with the greatest Complisance —

The time as well as mannar of my Being releved I ame a Strangear to. — Cash I have non nither know I how to get a Suply unless you be So good as to procure a Bill of Exchange which may inable me to Draw my pay — Cloaths I must if posable have, and Should any Gentleman in this place advance me Cash for that purpos I should be Sorry to leve this Country with out paying him —

Colo. Skilar by home¹ I have the pleasure of Sending this, has promised if you Send the Bill to him he will Send it So that I shall have it —

I supos I shall be Soon Sent to Qubeck where I shall have the pleasure of Seeing Capts. Stobo and Vanbram I here they are in good helth —

Library of Congress

pray make my Best Complements to all the officers of my aquentance — I ame Your Most Obedt. Hble. Servant

ANDW. LEWIS

1 Whom?